

Club Notes: Contessa

February 2010

*Happy Valentine's Day to all the Crown Jewels
Club Members!*

The weather in January has just been too cold, too wet, just too yucky to do anything much outside, so apparently you've all focused on your quilting! We've been inundated with special design requests, and the variety is amazing.

The number pano 002 was created for a Saduko puzzle quilt, and we really weren't sure we wanted to know what the rat pattern was for!

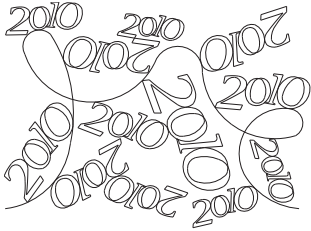

The graduation quilts are already underway: We've got the 2010 pano & 2010 border, and the graduation pano 001, and the ribbon 2010 patterns for those quilts.

Check out the extensive patterns featuring the heart motif, including the heart pano 004 sq, heart pano 005, the scroll heart pano 001 sq, plus the whole hearts aflutter set!

And much more.....

The Amethyst

Ribbon Nevaeh: This pattern was designed specifically to be viewed from the back of the quilt! Got one of those incredibly busy little girl quilt tops? When quilted with a much plainer backing, this pattern displays the word “HEAVEN”. This pattern is also concatenating, so you can combine it with ribbon dance pattern.

Rupert Swag Layout:

These two swag border patterns, shown with both stitched above, can be quilted separately. I think the simple curved stitching is a great way to both mark the cutting line in preparation for bias binding while at the same time, it holds the edges together to prevent a miscut of one layer. This was created for this pattern set, but it will work with most of the Sweet Dreams Quilt Studio swag border patterns.
